LINCOLN'S GRAVE.

Disturb not his slumbers, let our Lincoln sleep,
Near the boughs of the willows that o'er him
Heep.
His arm is uncured, but his deeds remain bright
As the stars in the dark vaulted heaven at night.
Oh, wake not the statesman; his counsels are
O'er;
Let him rest undisturbed on fair Sangamon's
Shore;
On the river's green border, so flowery dressed,
With the hearts he loved fondly, let our President rest!
Awake not his slumbers, tread lightly around
The grave of a freeman! The liberty's mound!
Thy name is immortal; great deeds ye have Done;
True son of Columbia! LAMENTED LINCOLN!
Oh, wake not the statesman; his counsels are
O'er;
Let him rest calmly rest, on his dear western Shore.
While the Stars and the Stripes of our country
Shall wave
O'er the land that can boast such a patriot's grave!

FRUITS OF WAR AND PEACE.

OF WAR.
The warrior waves his standard high,
His fashion flashes in the fray;
He proudly shouts his battle cry,
And glories in a deathful day;
And rapine prowls without the walls;
The country round lies desolate;
The harrow's blighting footstep falls,
By ruined hearts, by homes defiled,
By scenes that nature's visage mar,
We feel the storm of passions wild,
And pluck the bitter fruits of War.

OF PEACE.
The cob-web hangs on sword and helm,
The charger draws the gliding plow,
The cannons in the furnace melt,
And turn to gentle purposes now;
The threshers swing their ponderous flails,
The cranes toil with cheerful might,
The ocean swarms with merchant sails,
And busy mills look gay by night,
The happy land becomes renowned,
As knowledge, art and wealth increase,
And thus, with plenty swelling round,
We call the blessed fruits of Peace.

THE SUPREME JUDGMENT.—The Trinity Journal, of April 20th says:

The Quincy Union, Oroville Record, Red Bluff Independent and Shasta Courier have expressed their preference for Judge Warren T. Sexton, of Butte, as the successor of Judge Sanderson. We are called upon for a similar expression in the matter, and though personally unacquainted with Judge Sexton, are induced to believe from the representations of those who have known him long and well, that he is eminently qualified for the place, a man of integrity, purity of character, and an unswerving Unionist. From the fact that Northern delegations have heretofore gone into State Conventions without any previous understanding, this section of the State has as a general thing been "left out in the cold," when full things were to be parceled out. Let the people of the North understand themselves hereafter. The Supreme Bench is now composed of men from the Southern and Middle portion of the State, and it is but justice, that the North should fill the anticipated vacancy. Judge Sexton has filled the position of Judge of his District for eight years, and we are told stands very high in the legal profession as a jurist. Leaving the suggestions herein contained within the people of Trinity, we invite our neighbors of the Yreka Journal, Klamath News and Humboldt Times to "show their hands."

USED UP REBEL.—The position of Gen. Lee at the time of his surrender, should have been saddening indeed. His wife was within the Union lines. One of his sons, whom he loved with tenderness, was dead; another was in the hands of our troops, a prisoner. His personal property had all been taken possession of by officers of the Government. The great army which his genius organized and which he led upon so many hard-fought fields, was beaten, dispersed, ruined. Nothing awaited him but complete humiliation. But, unlike Jeff. Davis, he did not put on hoops.

The Maryland Legislature has repealed nearly all the old Acts of that State, oppressive to the colored population, which used to be so cruelly enforced. Among them were the laws "prohibiting meetings of negroes for religious purposes unless conducted by a white person," "prohibiting trade with free negroes," "prohibiting the navigation of vessels by negroes," and "prohibiting negroes from keeping a dog or a gun without a license."

STRANGE ACCIDENT.—L. Perkins, a farmer, who was shearing sheep recently, says the Oregon Arena, met with a severe accident. He had a habit of carrying his tongue between his teeth, while at work. In catching a sheep, it threw up its head and struck his chin, causing his teeth to close on his tongue, and severed it except about a half or three-quarters of an inch. It was sewed together by one of the men present, and is doing very well.

Affairs in San Bernardino and San Diego counties are reported to be in bad condition. Bands of horse thieves, professing to be Confederate soldiers, are prowling about plundering and robbing the country. The Indians report 300 guerrillas, with 600 horses, in the mountains near Warner's Ranch, on the old Southern Overland route.

A MAY, being asked by a young lady what photography was, took up his pencil and wrote the following, telling her that was photography: "U. R. A. B. U. T. L. N." (You are a beauty, Ellen.)

A BREACH-LOADING CANNON.—The California Chronicle gives an account of an invention as follows:

We have been shown by a gentleman residing in Mokelumne Hill, a model of a breach-loading cannon, recently invented by himself. The cannon is of the ordinary shape, cast so as to leave an opening in the breech, into which can be introduced one or more chambers. The chambers are placed on a platform of rollers in the shape of a railroad, from which they are run on to a turntable and brought round opposite the aperture in the breech, and run into it; it is pressed forward towards the barrel by means of five screws arranged to work by the motion of the hand. After the gun is discharged, the chamber is run out on the opposite side on to a similar platform where it can be reloaded and returned again to the breech. The chambers can be made of cast steel and the gun of cast iron, thus combining the two elements used in gunnery much cheaper than at present.

FIND FAULT IN PRIVATE.—Find fault, when you must find fault, in private if possible, and some time after the offense rather than at the time. The blamed are less inclined to resist when they are blamed without witnesses. Both parties are calmer, and the accused person may be struck with the forbearance of the accuser, who has seen the fault and watched for a private and proper time for mentioning it. Never be harsh or unjust with your children or servants. Firmness, with gentleness of demeanor and regard to the feelings, constitute that authority which is always respected and valued. If you have any cause to complain of a servant, never speak hastily; wait, at all events until you have had time to reflect on the nature of the offense.

FEMALE CLERKS.—There are about seven hundred female clerks employed in the Treasury Department, and selected from almost all the States in the Union. Many of them are young ladies, some few are married. Their chief business is in cutting and counting new Legal Tender and National bank notes, and in counting and destroying old ones. Their pay is $110 per annum each, for about six hours' close work per diem. The situations are very pleasant, and the Government is quite right in giving out this sort of work to women instead of men. The Superintendents complain, we believe, of too much talk, which, if it is not ungallant to say, must be put down to an infirmity of the sex.

LAZY BOYS.—A lazy boy makes a lazy man, just as sure as a crooked sapling makes a crooked tree. Who ever saw a boy grow up in idleness that did not make a shiftless vagabond when he became a man, unless he had a fortune left him to keep up appearance? The great mass of thieves, criminals, and paupers, have come to what they are, by being brought up in idleness. Those who constitute the business part of the community, those who make our great and useful men, were taught in their boyhood to be industrious.

A CENOTAPH.—Mr. H. D. McCobb has presented to the museum of Santa Clara College a small section taken from the heart of a redwood tree, containing a solid and perfect acorn, firmly imbedded in the solid wood. The tree was cut about two weeks ago, in the hills fifteen miles south-west of Santa Clara, and was eight feet in diameter.

CURE BRAD.—Two quarts of meal and one pint of bread sponge; water sufficient to wet the whole; add half a pint of flour and a tablespoonful of salt; let it rise, and then knead well for the second time, and place the dough in the oven and allow it to bake an hour and a half.

The largest tape-worm of which there is any record, was taken from a man named Garbow, by Dr. Vandenberg, of San Francisco. It was five hundred feet long, and contained forty-two thousand joints. The whole thing weighs two and a half pounds.

In Charlestown, Mass., a few days ago, a poor woman whose cow had died, applied to a rich ship-builder for fifty cents toward purchasing another. He finally refused, and rushing to his desk, seized a woman, wrote a check for fifty dollars, and told her to say nothing more to him on the subject of cows. Such a man as that ought to be punished.

Texasan, arriving out West trying to persuade the girls to forego marriage. He might as well try to persuade ducks that they could find a substitute for water, or frogs that there is something better for their companions than such a thing. The only convert he has made is a single lady of sweet sixty-nine.

OVER SUPPER.—A farmer from the interior, visiting a ranchman residing in the suburbs, asked his wife casually if they were going in for Boise. Misunderstanding the homely phrase, she answered meekly: "Well, I guess not; we've had too many already, and this time I reckon we'll go in for girls."

A Chicago school master is making quite a local sensation by giving large doses of red pepper to whispering scholars. It may not give the boys much "book learning," but it makes them smart.

No paper will be forwarded from this office unless the subscription is paid in advance. All papers discontinued when the subscription expires. The rule will be strictly enforced.

CORRESPONDENCE.
Our friends everywhere, who may at any time have knowledge of facts of local importance—incidents, accidents, mining news, songs of public meetings, improvements, curiosities, &c., would confer a favor upon our readers generally by sending notice of the same to this office. Give us facts in any shape, and we will take care of them.

SAN FRANCISCO PRICES OF COPPER ORES.
We give the following as an approximate price at which copper ores can now be sold in this city. There is no sale for ores which assay less than ten per cent.

Assay	Price
12 per cent. ore	$24.00
13 " " "	28.00
14 " " "	32.00
15 " " "	36.00
16 " " "	40.00
17 " " "	44.00
18 " " "	48.00
19 " " "	52.00
20 " " "	56.00
21 " " "	60.00
22 " " "	64.00
23 " " "	68.00
24 " " "	72.00
25 " " "	76.00
26 " " "	80.00
27 " " "	84.00
28 " " "	88.00
29 " " "	92.00
30 " " "	96.00

To calculate the value of ore which assays 30 per cent., and upwards, multiply the per centage by $3.20, and you have the price which will be paid. For instance—suppose you have ore, which assays 35 per cent.—multiply 35 by $3.20, and you have $113.75 as the value of the ore. These prices, we believe, will be found substantially correct, and can always be realized.—Mining Press.

The Arabs possess a wise practice, in proceeding for a divorce. When married people seek a separation, the cadi orders them to live for some time with a discreet and austere man of the tribe, that the latter may examine their lives and see on which side blame lies. This elderly man makes a report at the expiration of the appointed time, and this report is the foundation on which the cadi builds his judgment of divorce. Experience has demonstrated that there is no better method of restoring peace in families. The husband and wife, put thus on their good behavior, resume the manner of counting days. Each strives to be more amiable than the other, to convince the "elder of Israel" that it is not this one's fault, if the honeymoon changed its quarter. Old love is awakened, and the pair that went to the approved man's tent snoring like cat and dog, return home cooing like doves.

WHAT HORN DIN.—It stole on its pinions to the bed of disease; the sufferer frown became a smile, the emblem of peace and love.

It went to the house of mourning, and from the lips of sorrow there came a sweet and cheerful song.

It laid its head upon the arm of the poor, which stretched forth the hand of whilom impotence, and saved him from disgrace and ruin.

It dwells like a living thing in the bosom of the mother, whose son tarried long after the promised time of his coming and saved her from desolation, and the "care that killeth."

It hovered about the head of the youth who had become the luminal of society, and led him on works which even his enemies praised.

It snatched a maiden from the jaws of death, and went with an old man to heaven, like a good angel.

No hope! my good brother! Have it! Keep it always with you. Wrestle with it, that it may not depart. It may repay your pains. Life is hard enough at best, but hope shall lead you over the mountains, and sustain you amid its billows. Part with all besides, but keep thy hope.

THE FAIRFIELD ROBBERY.—Some ten days ago the treasury of Solano county was robbed of several thousand dollars. A reward was offered for the detection of the robber, and recovery of the stolen money. From the Solano Herald of the 12th we learn that John Terrell, County Treasurer, has been presented by a special Grand Jury for embezzlement of the same.
